DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, it is not clear how the phrase "characterized in that" further structurally limit the claimed device. Further, it is not clear if one or both of the surfaces of the cornered plate corresponding to the two side plates.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant Admitted Prior Art (AAPA), Figures 1-5.

The Prior Art in Figures 1-5 teaches most of the elements of the claimed invention, including protection cover in figure 1. However, the protection cover of the Prior Art fails to include plates. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the protection cover include a rear plate, two side plates and two moving cornered plate, since it has been held that constructing a formerly integral structure in various elements involves only routine skill in the art. Nerwin v. Erlicman, 168 USPQ 177, 179.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
